Bombers Blitz Army to Score 11th Victory

Northrop's hard-hitting Bombers kept their streak of wins intact last Sunday when they blitzed the Fort MacArthur club 10 to 6 at the Torrance city park diamond. Lee Bastian, former Redondo High school ace, and Bob White allowed the soldiers ten scattered hits while the Bombers collected 12 bingles. Coe, the Army second baseman, rapped out a home run with two aboard for the feature hit of the game.

Next Sunday afternoon, starting at 2:15, the Bombers will take on the Pacific Clay Products club and hope to make that game their 12th straight victory.

Both Teams at Peak Condition for League Championship Tie

In their final 1941 appearance, the Torrance Tartars and Narbonne Gauchos will stage their annual "big game" for the 16th time tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at the Torrance field. The outcome of this battle may throw the Marine League championship into either a two or three-way knot. The 1941 title may be tied this way:

If Torrance defeats Narbonne and San Pedro leads either one of its games with Gardena and Banning, the Tartars, Gauchos and Pirates may each claim a third of the championship.

However, if Narbonne wins tomorrow and San Pedro drops one of its two remaining games, the Gauchos will walk off with the title.

Gardena ends a disastrous season Friday by playing the badly-crippled San Pedro Pirates at the port city. San Pedro and Banning will play off an earlier rained-postponed game on Nov. 18.

The merest glance at the record of the past 15 Tartar-Gaucha battles and the story hailing the "true iron men" of Torrance who have succeeded in scoring on Narbonne (published elsewhere on this page) indicates that the Lomitas hold more than a historical edge over their rivals. That traditional advantage is there, alright, but—

That "but" is Coach Barr's slow nurturing process while it has brought the Torrance varsity along gradually until today it is a potential winner tomorrow. Even its spirit—so long a worthless factor in Torrance teams—is better than it has been in at least two years.

Countering this psychological gain is Coach Bill Sloan's fast, rangy crew of Gauchos who began to hit the pace expected of them early in the season two weeks ago when they downed Banning 12 to 6 and last week when they beat San Pedro 7 to 6. With Torrance also on the upgrade by virtue of its victories over Gardena and Banning, spectators should see two evenly-matched elevens playing at their best tomorrow.

Zamperini Expert Now With Rifle

Louis Zamperini's talents are not all wrapped up on the cinder path. The famed Torrance U. S. C. and Olympic miler chalked up an expert's rating when his 87th Infantry Training Battalion held a shooting match recently at Camp Roberts. He piled up a score of 178 out of a possible 200.

Zamperini, who was inducted Sept. 29, is now an acting corporal. His outfit was firing on a record course, using 1903 model Springfield rifles at 200 yards, ten shots slow fire standing, five sitting, five kneeling, rapid fire ten shots sitting from standing and ten kneeling from standing.

Out of a total of 830 men that fired 27 riddled the targets for expert ratings, 116 were checked off as sharpshooters and 608 made marksmanship scores. Only 79 failed to qualify. Officers agreed, it was reported in San Francisco newspaper that the performance turned in by the 87th "was a remarkable exhibition of rifle skill for men who only a month ago were civilians."

Marine League Dance Nov. 19

Plans for the Marine League high school dance are in full swing. This gala affair is to be one of the best dances of the year with all Marine League schools taking part.

A new system for the decorations is being inaugurated. Schools not playing in the football carnival must decorate the Torrance Civic Auditorium where the dance is to be held the night before Thanksgiving, Nov. 19.
